COMPLEMENT'S SAFETY

Refined and elegant

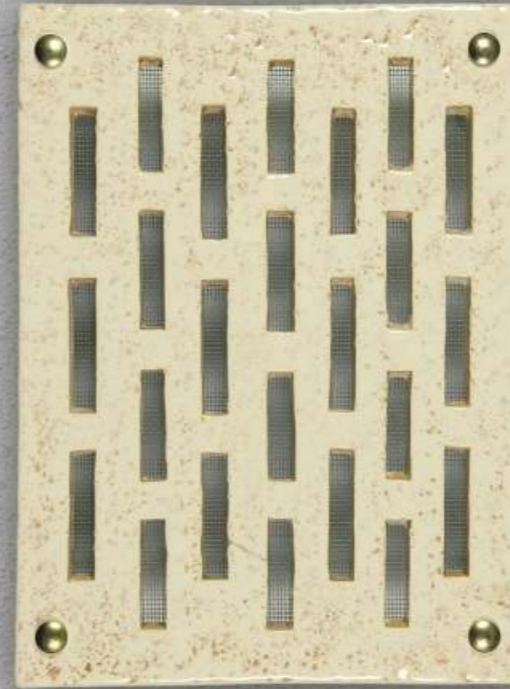

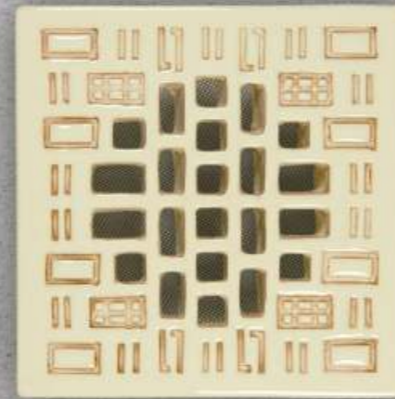

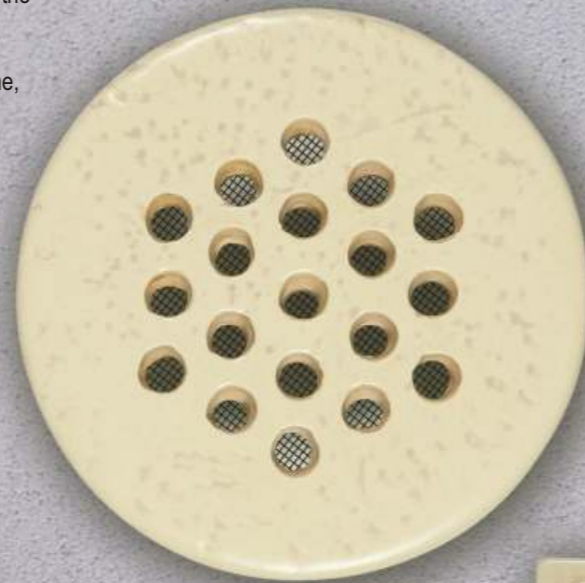

AIR VENTS

For any ambient with gas appliances, the laws in force say that there must be air vents installed to guarantee the regular oxygenation of the ambient and to avoid the stagnation of potential exhaust fumes.

GIRARIA air vents have all of these features and, at the same time, they let you to put personality and elegance to your rooms.

In fact, they are made of a special formula of ceramic and, of course, they are available in different shapes, finishes and colors with air passages from 18 to 231cm².
